In return, this train will depart from New Guwahati shed every Sunday at 06.00 and reach Dhoraji station on the third day. In one round, this train will cover a total distance of 2833 km in 63 hours.

Bihar decides to reopen schools for students of Class 6 to 8 from February 8

New Delhi, Bihar government on Friday announced that it will reopen schools for students of Class 6 to 8 from February 8, news agency ANI reported. The government in Bihar had ordered closure of schools and colleges owing to the coronavirus pandemic since March 14. The government reopened educational institutions including schools, colleges and coaching centres earlier on January 4 after nine months. Classes with 50% attendance were held for students of standards 9-12 in schools and final year students in colleges. Students from classes 9-12 were attending classes in two shifts, with 50% of a class' capacity in each shift. The government has ordered educational institutions to follow strict

Gujarat based industrialists praised the union budget as a pro-development

Ahmedabad, Gujarat based industrialists have welcomed the union budget 2021 and praised it as pro-development and growth-oriented. Commenting on the union budget, Mr. Kamlesh Patel, Chairman, and Managing Director, Asian Granito India Ltd said "It is a growth-oriented inclusive budget with focus on infrastructure, investment, MSME and health sector to review growth on the fast track. The measures are expected to give the right momentum to the economy in the medium to long term. Tax reforms and tax simplification measures especially reducing

Rajasthan BJP MLA booked for raping Neemuch woman on pretext of marriage

Jaipur, Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP)'s Rajasthan MLA from Gogunda, Pratapla Bheel has been booked on Friday for allegedly raping a 35-year-old woman on pretext of marriage, said police. The complainant, from Neemuch district of Madhya Pradesh, has accused the 56-year-old leader of enticing her into a physical relationship by falsely promising marriage. The MLA said he was not aware of the case registered against him. "Some years ago, I had met Bheel in a social function held in Neemuch, where he was a guest; after which we became acquaintances and confided in each other about our dissatisfactory relationship with our partners. Gradually, we became good friends before the MLA proposed me with marriage, which I refused. But he continued to repeat his proposal on several occasions, which I finally accepted on the condition that he will take permission from his family members," reads the complainant's statement. The complainant claimed that the MLA told her that he had parted ways with his first wife with her consent in the presence of community heads. "Further, we kept meeting in Neemuch and Udaipur in the

In another temple robbery in Jaipur, 4 octal metal idols stolen on Friday

Jaipur, Four-days after 30 idols were stolen from a Jain temple in Jaipur, another Jain temple in the city was robbed of precious idols and ornaments on early Friday morning. Around 3.15 am on Friday, four to five masked men entered the temple premises from the terrace of the neighbouring house. The robbers slipped inside the temple after removing a net cover, alerting the guards Ashish Yadav and Navratn. "When the two guards woke-up, the accused threatened them with a pistol and tied them up. They took the keys to the temple and made away with four idols of Lord Parshvanath, made up of 'ashtadhathu' (octal metal), and a silver throne," said a city police official. At around 3.27am, the guards somehow untied themselves and informed the officials of the nearest temple committee, following which, police were informed and an investigation was launched. "The CCTV footage of the nearby areas are being scanned by the control room located at the office of city police commissioner. Also, the calls recorded at the nearest cell phone towers are being analyzed to trace the suspects," the police official said.
